SALEM 2011 Annual Meeting | June 24-25

PNMC Delegates: If you have not downloaded your 2011 Delegate Handbook, please do that now! For anyone interested in reading the reports, it is available here: http://www.pnmc.org/Meetings/Annual_Meetings/Salem_2011.

Since this year's Annual Meeting is on the Western Mennonite School campus, it is a great opportunity for you to see Pacific Northwest Mennonite Historical Society Archives and Library, located in a small room on the backside (West) of the chapel building. There is a sign on the door and a staff member will be present both days (10am—6pm). Feel free to check us out and see what is available about conference records, family history or research resources. ~ PNMHS Staff

Young Anabaptists to focus on global connections this year

The new Young Anabaptists' (YABs) Committee of Mennonite World Conference has made stronger international fellowship the focus of their projects for the coming year. Meeting May 2–9 in Taipei alongside the annual MWC Executive Committee meeting, the group also completed the transition between its predecessor, the MWC Youth Task Force (YTF), which had laid the groundwork for the formation and mandate of the committee.

“The involvement of young people in MWC leadership and decision-making has gone a long way from where it first started in Zimbabwe in 2003,” said Tigist Tesfaye, African representative to the YABs committee, “and we are very honored to facilitate the implementation of these dreams.” For the full article click here.
