MENNONITE CHURCH USA & OTHER CHURCHWIDE AGENCIES

listed alphabetically by organization

Eastern Mennonite University

EMU has been selected as accrediting school for a semester program at The Oregon Extension in Ashland, OR. The partnership offers students seeking a unique semester of study the opportunity to explore ideas and live in community in the OE's rustic setting. Students join college professors who live at Lincoln, a 1920s logging village on the banks of a millpond in the mountains of southern Oregon where daily learning revolves around the reading of great books, careful note-taking to prepare for small group discussion, lectures, and individual study and writing projects.

Peace and Justice Support Network

The Advisory Council of the Mennonite Church USA Peace and Justice Support Network (PJSN) is coming to northwest Oregon for its fall meeting. As a network of peace-interested folks, one of PJSN's main interests when holding its biannual meetings is to connect with local supporters and leaders. While in Oregon, they would like to meet with any PNMC peace and justice folks, pastors, or district pastors who have interest in connecting with them. Two open house "brown bag" lunchtime meetings are being planned. No RSVP required. Bring your own lunch if you wish. Thursday, September 18, noon to 1p.m. at Portland Mennonite Church, and Friday, September 19, noon to 1 p.m. at Salem Mennonite Church. The advisory council consists of six members from around MC USA (Ohio, VA, IN, NM, CA, OR) who provide support and feedback to Jason Boone, Coordinating Minister for PJSN. If anyone is interested in meeting with the advisory council but cannot meet during the lunchtime meetings, please contact Dave Hockman-Wert.
