Mennonite Central Committee

Three 2015 Goshen College graduates, Seth Miller of CO, Jackson Bush from OH, and Caleb Longenecker from IL, set out on a 4,000-mile, cross-country bicycling trip from the Oregon coast to raise funds for MCC's Global Family education program, which works with schools and community-based organizations in more than 40 countries. While serving in Nicaragua on his Study and Service Term with GC, Longenecker delivered supplies to a school in a rural village which reminded him of helping his church collect items for MCC school kits. Seeing the impact of the supplies motivated him to help improve access to education. The cyclists planned the route to reach Kansas City, MO, in time to represent their alma mater at the Mennonite Church USA convention. Follow their journey here.
