The 2018 Oregon Mennonite Festival for World Relief will be Saturday, October 13 at the Linn County Fairgrounds in Albany. Check details here.

Portland Mennonite Church and Corvallis Mennonite Fellowship

We Know There Are Oceans: A Travel Guide, Stories & Songs by Michelle Milne & Heather Kropf

Michelle Milne and Heather Kropf are combining their talents on a west coast tour. Michelle is an actor and writer who has been collaborating with Ted & Co. traveling across the country. She resides part-time in Portland, OR. Heather Kropf, a Pittsburgh, PA resident, was born in Oregon and is the daughter of Stan and Marlene Kropf. The two artists will offer an informal evening of stories and poetry from Michelle Milne, writer/performer, and songs from Heather Kropf, singer-songwriter, pianist. The first show is Sunday, October 14, 7:30pm at Portland Mennonite Church. The second will be Friday, October 19, 7:30pm at Corvallis Mennonite Fellowship (Westminster House). A description of their individual work is attached.

Drift Creek Camp

There is still time to register for the Fall Quilt Retreat October 18-21, 2018. Pack up your projects and plan to enjoy the luxury of time to dedicate on them while the camp staff takes care of you. Meanwhile, if there are any folks willing to work on the new caretaker cabin, the weekend will be a perfect time! DCC will provide food, lodging and fellowship for volunteers. If you are interested in lending a hand, please contact Tony Kauffman at info@driftcreek.org.

Camp Camrec

Camp Camrec, in Leavenworth, WA, will host a Fall Work Weekend beginning October 26 at 5:00pm and concluding at 11:00am October 28. Follow this link to register.

Men across the PNMC are invited to the 2018 Men's Retreat at Camrec for a weekend of worship, recreation, fellowship, and great food. This is a chance to spend some quality time with our brothers from the Washington Mennonite Fellowship. Together, participants will engage in lively discussions; play pinochle with wily wheat farmers; blaze trails through fresh snow in cross-country skis or snow shoes and enjoy the tubing run! $70 for adults, $35 for sons under 18 and free for MVS workers. Spread the word, form carpools, and arrive on Friday, Nov 30. Dinner is on your own Friday. We will depart after brunch on Sunday.

I Go On Singing: Paul Robeson's Life in Word & Song: Featuring Tony Brown, October 27, 2018, 7:00pm

This concert captures the essence of a monumental 20th-century figure, Paul Robeson. Robeson was an all-American athlete, scholar, international recording artist and star of stage and screen. Regarded as the best-known African American entertainer in the world during his lifetime, he was a courageous example of integrity and discipline in service of peace. The concert combines song (including “Old Man River”), narratives, news clips and excerpts from an interview with Robeson’s friend, the legendary folksinger/ songwriter Pete Seeger. Robeson is portrayed by American baritone Anthony Brown, about whom The Denver Post has declared that “Brown delivers with generous beauty.”

The pianist for this performance is Ken Rodgers, and the narrator is Tim Manickam.

MENNONITE CHURCH USA & OTHER CHURCHWIDE AGENCIES

listed alphabetically by organization

Goshen College

During the GC Homecoming Weekend, October 5-7, the college will honor five outstanding alumni with awards for their commitment to the Goshen College’s core values. The Culture for Service Awards were initiated in 1989 and are given annually to honor graduates who have made lifelong commitments to service. Recipients distinguish themselves through commendable accounts of service and achievements at home or in their churches, colleges, communities and the larger world. The Champion of Character Awards, created in 2005, are presented to a male and female alumni athlete who exemplify the college’s core values in their lives, work and community service. The 2018 Alumni Awards were presented to:
