1:00 PM Workshops – Session 1

- Journey Toward Health (2 hr. workshop)– multipurpose room-- Bill Blank, former interim pastor at Zion and former staff at Lombard Mennonite Peace Center. Understanding congregations from a systems perspective and how to develop a congregational "immune system" to keep the church healthier.
- When Trauma Comes to Church (2 hr. workshop) – skylight room -- Kaylene Scholl Henderson, member of Western and Licensed Counselor. Understanding the physical, psychological, emotional and theological aspects of trauma and exploring ways that the church can promote healing.
- Contemplative Inclusive Worship – outdoors -- Rachael Weasley, singer/songwriter and church planter at Community of Hope. Rachael will share and teach her own music as illustrative of contemplative worship for an inclusive congregation.
- Money Autobiographies – sanctuary -- Rhoda Blough, Everence Stewardship Consultant. Exploring what money autobiographies can teach you about yourself and how congregations can use them.

2:00 PM Workshops – Session 2

- Healthy Congregations (part 2)
- When Trauma comes to church (part 2)
- Restorative Practices in Schools and in the Church – sanctuary -- Art Montoya, Restorative Justice Coordinator, WCMCC. Hear the story of how West Coast MCC is engaging public schools with restorative practices and how you can use them in your congregation as well.
- Mennonite Mission Network Today – outdoors -- Ana Alicia Hinojosa, MMN Director of Constituent Engagement. During the pandemic, MMN had to scramble to adapt to many changes in our world. Hear what they are doing now and how your congregation can engage.
